

FOOTBALL 1888

page 38, Trinity Archive of 1888: "The Trinity football team has sent a challenge to the Chapel Hill ELEVEN. What will they do with it?"

Trinity 16; North Carolina 0 at Raleigh Thanksgiving Day

(Robert Durham made first kick-off. Stonewall J. Durham scored first point. Was first football game of modern day style played below the Mason-Dixon line. (OVAL BALL) ^{Nov. 27}

Coach: President John Franklin Crowell (YALE)

November 29, 1888: First meeting of North Carolina Intercollegiate Football association was held in the Yarbrough hotel in Raleigh.