

BOWL GAMES

The Blue Devils' famed "Iron Dukes", with co-captains Dan Hill and Eric Tipton leading the way, entered the Rose Bowl having completed the regular season unbeaten, untied and unscored upon, but Southern Cal ruined that perfect season in the final minute of Duke's first bowl appearance.

Coach Wallace Wade said, "I hated to see the boys lose it when they played such a great game. We did well as long as they used only two teams, but when they put in those third and fourth teams, they were too much for us."

But Duke probably won more national fans that day than they would have had they won. Bill Stern's NBC radio broadcast went into homes here and abroad and millions of fans mourned with the Blue Devil faithful.

The game itself rocked back and forth for three quarters, mostly a punting duel between Granny Lansdell and Mickey Anderson of the Trojans and Tipton of the Blue Devils.

Late in the third quarter, Lansdell booted one to George McAfee who returned it 26 yards to the Trojan 49, and two plays later, McAfee took a pass from Tipton and went to the USC 25.

After Roger Robinson, Tipton and Bob O'Mara had picked up nine yards in three rushes, Tony Ruffa booted a field goal and Duke led, 3-0, with just a minute played in the fourth quarter.

With seven minutes remaining in the game, a Duke fumble gave the Trojans the ball on the Blue Devil 10-yard line, but three plays later they were back at the 15-yard line and then missed a 24-yard field goal attempt.

It looked like Duke had it, but with two minutes to go and the Trojans on the Duke 35, coach Howard Jones sent in Doyle Nave, their number four quarterback. He simply completed three straight passes to Al Krueger, their number two left end, with the clincher coming from the 16-yard line.

But the game was not over. On the very last play, Tipton threw a forward pass to McAfee who went 17 yards to the Trojan 40-yard line where the final Trojan caught him.

USC's winning touchdown ended Duke's defensive domination after the Blue Devils had held opponents scoreless in the previous nine games.

Anthony J. McKevelin, sports editor of the Raleigh News & Observer reported that "the fans who jammed the huge Rose Bowl got more than they expected. They were treated to a football battle worthy of the setting. Long will they talk about this game, and always the talk of the great play of the Blue Devils will be words of praise."

The Blue Devils became one of just three teams since 1920 to go through the regular season unbeaten, untied and unscored upon, joining Colgate in 1932 and Tennessee in 1939.

The 1942 Rose Bowl game is like no other in the history of this famous contest. Large crowds had been banned on the West Coast due to the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor, and bowl officials accepted an offer from Duke to host the game in Durham, making this the only time the game has ever been played outside of Pasadena.

Often called the most hectic week in Durham's history, the final days leading to the transplanted 1942 Rose Bowl only served as a prelude to what transpired on the field of play. Not even a steady rain that chilled the 56,000 spectators at Duke Stadium could detract from a marvelously contested affair between the Southern Conference champion Blue Devils and the invaders from Oregon State.

Coach Wallace Wade's team, during a 9-0 regular season, averaged 34.5 points a game and scored at least 50 three times, making them the second-highest scoring club in the country.

The Blue Devils promptly fumbled away the opening kickoff to their guests. That play certainly set the tone for the rest of the afternoon.

The Beavers' first scoring march started on their own 49 and proceeded to inside the Duke 20 before it ran into a snag at the 15. It was third down and eight to go and everyone in the stadium knew it was a passing down except Don Durdan. He took the toss from center and dropped back a few feet as if to pass. Duke's onrushing linemen stormed in but were caught by surprise when Durdan took off running around the right and crossed the goal line without being touched.

Steve Lach scored Duke's first touchdown, scampering into the end zone on a reverse from four yards out. Durham's own Bob Gantt converted the extra point to tie the score at 7-7.

The third period featured three touchdowns. The first one was the direct result of two big plays, with Gene Gray carrying the ball 24 yards from his own 45 to Duke's 31. After a four-yard running play and an offsides penalty, left halfback Bob Dethman shot a pass to left end George Zellick for the touchdown.

Duke struck back only two minutes later. Lach turned in the key yardage by bolting 39 yards on another reverse to put the ball at the Beaver 25. After a Lach run and a penalty, Siegfried plunged in with no difficulty from the one-yard line and Tommy Prothro booted an extra point to tie the score again.

Just two plays after taking the Duke kickoff, Dethman rifled a deep pass from his own 32 down to the Duke 28. Gray sprinted to the end zone to complete the 68-yard play that won the game.

Duke added a safety in the fourth quarter when Durdan was swarmed by five Duke players on a bad snap from center. Duke threatened offensively throughout the final period, three times advancing inside the Oregon State 35 and once to the 20 before George Peters intercepted a pass. The game ended with Dethman intercepting a Rute pass, with the score 20-16.

BOWL GAMES

In a game that sportswriter Grantland Rice called, "one of the greatest thrillers of all time," the Blue Devils were forced to come from behind twice in the Sugar Bowl.

Despite its 5-4 record, Duke again was cast in the favorite's role. After a 61-7 crunching of Richmond in the season opener, Duke lost in succession to Pennsylvania, North Carolina Pre-Flight, Navy and Army. The Blue Devils had gained much prestige with their showings against the service academies and was the only team to hold a lead on Army all season.

Duke's explosive offense, nicknamed the "Whiz Kids" for its speed and wide-open style of play, was led by running backs Tom Davis and George Clark as Davis picked up 101 yards on 27 carries and Clark 123 on 14 with each adding two touchdowns.

The lead changed hands four times and Coach Eddie Cameron, who was in charge of the Blue Devils during Wallace Wade's war absence, found his team down 19-7 midway in the second quarter. The score was not ultimately settled until the final play when Duke's Gordon Carver pulled down an Alabama receiver on the 24-yard line as the clock expired.

As expected, Cameron's charges started the game with a flurry, scoring the first touchdown just 2:25 into the contest. It took only five plays for the Blue Devils to cross the goal line. Clark returned the opening kickoff and then ran around left end on the first play for a gain of 52 yards. Three plays later, Clark scrambled for the TD with a PAT success from Harold Raether.

Alabama, led by quarterback Harry Gilmer who completed all eight of his passes for 142 yards, came back with three straight scores for a 19-7 lead.

It was now time for a Duke comeback, and Cameron decided to try the passing attack. He installed Cliff Lewis and he promptly engineered a 63-yard scoring drive. Lewis pitched once to Raether for 13 yards, then to Carver for 15. Next, Lewis ran around the right side for 26 yards to the 2-yard line. Davis scored the TD and made it a 19-13 halftime deficit.

Duke returned to its more traditional power tactics after the break with the fullback Tom Davis carrying the ball on 11 of the 12 plays of the first drive of the second half. He capped the 64-yard drive with a one-yard TD plunge, putting Duke back ahead 20-19.

The Blue Devils started a fourth quarter drive at the Tide 30-yard line when Lewis, looking to pass to Carver, threw wildly and was intercepted by Alabama's Hugh Morrow who ran it back 78 yards for a score. Then he hit the extra point to make it 26-20.

Alabama took possession with just under three minutes to play and elected to take a safety on first down to avoid any gambles on a bad pass from center. The result was disastrous as Clark took the ensuing free kick and brought it all the way back to the Alabama 39.

Larue followed with a 19-yard gain on a reverse to set the stage for a dramatic, game-winning 20-yard run by Clark for the 29-26 final score.

Seeing their first bowl action in 10 years, the Blue Devils, champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference, represented the league in the Orange Bowl and came away with an impressive 34-7 win over Nebraska.

It was Duke's rushing game that proved too tough for the 'Huskars' as the Blue Devils tallied 288 yards to Nebraska's 84. Duke gained 370 total yards to the slim 110-yard attack that Nebraska mounted.

After a scoreless first quarter, Duke unleashed a relentless offensive attack. On the first possession of the second quarter, captain Jerry Barger directed Duke 65 yards to its first score. The senior quarterback hit end Sonny Sorrell with a 22-yard pass for the biggest gainer of the drive. Left halfback Bob Pascal had an 11-yard run in the series and climaxed the march with a seven-yard jaunt around the end untouched. Jim Nelson's extra point made it 7-0 with 11 minutes to play in the first half.

Later in the quarter, Nebraska's number two quarterback, Don Erway, tried to pass from his own 20-yard line. Duke fullback Bryant Aldridge intercepted downfield and returned the ball to the 21, and three plays later the Blue Devils were on top 14-0. Jerry Kocourek scored the TD on a perfect two-yard pass from Barger just 28 seconds before halftime.

"That intercepted pass gave us that second touchdown and put us on the ice," said head coach Bill Murray. "Nebraska had a good, tough team. But we got the big break. Nebraska gave us the big chance with that pass and we took advantage of it."

After Nebraska made it 14-7 in the third quarter, Duke took the next kickoff and drove 65 yards in eight plays to go up 20-7. On their next possession, following a Nick McKeithan interception and 25-yard return, the Blue Devils went 11 yards and made it 27-7, getting the TD on the first play of the fourth period. The very next time they got their hands on the ball, they went 51 yards in ten plays to close out the scoring for the 34-7 margin.

Sorrell hauled in a 17-yard scoring strike from Barger to get that third TD, following a nice 29-yard run by Pascal. McKeithan got the fourth score on a one-yard buck through the line then Sam Ebert climaxed the 51-yard drive with a three-yard run for the fifth and final score.

Many of the record 68,750 spectators started leaving the stands when Duke made it 27-7. That was of little concern to Murray, however, as he completely cleared his bench and allowed all 36 players who dressed for the game to play in it.

"I knew we'd have to play our best to stand a chance of beating Duke," said Nebraska head coach Bill Glasford. "But we came up with a stinking performance and got spanked. That Duke line outcharged us. Those linemen were on top of our ball carriers before they got started."

TRADITION

BOWL GAMES

Duke found its return trip to the Orange Bowl a little sour in 1958.

First of all, 1957 marked the last year that the ACC would send its champion to the Orange Bowl, and Duke made it because league leader N.C. State was on NCAA probation. On top of that, the Blue Devils were paired against highly-favored and 4th-ranked Oklahoma.

Duke, which started out the 1957 campaign with a 5-0 record but ended the regular season 6-2-2, kept pace with the 9-1 Sooners through the first three quarters.

No one, however, could have expected the game to be decided the way it was — by the Sooners turning six Duke mistakes into touchdowns.

Duke served up the Sooners' first two scores as Oklahoma built an early 14-0 lead. Blue Devil mistakes also accounted for the Sooners' final four as Oklahoma scored 27 points in the fourth quarter to break open a 21-14 nail biter. The six strikes came on quick conversions of two Duke fumbles, two Duke interceptions, a blocked punt and a wild snap from center.

Oklahoma's first conversion came after Duke moved deep into Sooner territory. Quarterback George Harris tossed a wild pass into the right flat which David Baker picked off at the six-yard line and ran it back 94 yards for paydirt.

Soon after, Oklahoma was back in the scoring column after a bad snap in punt formation which Clendon Thomas took at the Duke 13-yard line and returned for a 14-0 lead.

To Duke's credit, the Blue Devils responded with fury and took the ball 65 yards in seven plays for a score to make it 14-7 at the half. Key plays in the drive included Wray Carlton's 20-yard run and a twisting 17-yard run by George Dutrow that put the ball on the three. Team captain Hal McElhaney scored the first two times he touched the ball in this game.

Both teams scored in the third quarter with Oklahoma first on a six-inch sneak by Carl Dodd. He set up the score with 36-yard punt return to the Duke 14.

Duke cameright back and pushed its way with authority through the Oklahoma defense for 85 yards on 11 plays. Pryor Millner's passing and Dutrow's running ate up the yardage. Then Dutrow circled around the end eight yards for the score behind a jarring block by Roy Hord.

After that, very little went right for Duke. Two fumbles, a blocked punt and an interception all spelled doom in the fourth quarter.

Running backs Wray Carlton and George Dutrow led the way for the Blue Devils with 84 and 69 yards, respectively.

Overall, Duke outrushed the Sooners 231-165 and ran more plays, 69-44, but the final score was all Oklahoma.

Duke won its fourth ACC football title in 1960 and landed squarely in its first Cotton Bowl. But don't get the impression that the Blue Devils and their 7-3 record rolled into Dallas on a high note. Coach Murray's team lost its last two regular season games and had plenty to prove when it met Arkansas.

Two of the nation's premier passing teams were to showcase their aerial talents, but it was defense that proved to be the final factor. Quarterback Don Altman led the Blue Devil attack as the Blue Devils captured a narrow 7-6 victory over Arkansas in Duke's only trip to the Cotton Bowl.

The first ever tilt with the Hogs marked one of Duke's all-time great comeback victories. The Blue Devils didn't have far to come back from but they waited until the very end and did it in a dramatic fashion.

After a scoreless first half, Arkansas' great back, Lance Alworth, ended the shutout with 2:53 remaining in the third period by returning a Duke punt 49 yards for a touchdown. Duke stopped the extra point when Dave Unser broke through the line to smother the attempt.

Finally, Duke's offense came to life in the fourth quarter. Arkansas had yielded only one touchdown in its final four regular season contests. Duke knew the yards would come tough, and they did. The Blue Devils managed only 189 yards for the game and 73 came on one drive.

Duke's game winning touchdown drive came in the face of this defense and can only be called remarkable. With gritty determination, the Blue Devils marched 73 yards into the teeth of the Razorbacks and scored with just 2:45 to play. Altman engineered the drive which featured no long gains and took 18 snaps to accomplish. Two of those plays were fourth down conversions and six were passes hauled in by All-America end Claude "Tee" Moorman.

Three plays leading up to the TD were considered especially devastating from the Razorbacks' side of the field. First, there was a seven-yard pass from Altman to Bob Spada after Altman had appeared to be trapped for a long loss. Then, Duke had third-and-three on the Arkansas 30-yard line and the Hogs suspected a pass in the flat to Moorman. They guessed right with Alworth getting his hands on the ball only to have Moorman struggle it away but for a three-yard loss.

That set up fourth down and Altman calmly found Dean Wright in the clear and hit him with a pass good for 11 yards.

Four plays later came the tying touchdown pass, and it involved just a little tomfoolery. The play went down in the scoring summary as a nine-yard pass from Altman to Moorman, but there were two spur-of-the-moment wrinkles on this play. The play, 31-rollback, had been used before with Altman pitching it to the halfback who then pitches it back before entering the line and Altman peels left to find his receiver.

Altman called the play and got the ball back but curled to his right where he found a wide open Moorman who had faked Alworth with a look in and a cut out — the opposite of the usual play.

Captain Art Browning then came in to kick the extra point — perfect.

BOWL GAMES

After sharing the ACC title and making its first bowl appearance in over 25 years, Duke had its sights set on the first nine-win season since the Rose Bowl team of 1941.

The Blue Devils came into the game winners of seven straight after a 1-3 start. The record-setting squad was led by ACC Coach of the Year Steve Spurrier and his "Airball" attack featuring All-America wide receiver Clarkston Hines.

Texas Tech running back James Gray quickly dashed those thoughts, though, as the Red Raiders scored the first four touchdowns of the contest to take an early 28-0 lead and set the tone for an eventual 49-21 Duke loss.

The first 20 minutes were dominated by Texas Tech, which finished with 339 first-half yards, and Gray, who set an All American Bowl record with three touchdowns in one half. Duke turned the ball over three times and fell behind 28-0 before a quick rally made it 28-14 at the half.

Sophomore quarterback Dave Brown came in to lead Duke on two quick scoring strikes. The first drive took but 25 seconds and two plays with Bud Zuberer hauling in a 30-yard pass down the right sideline with 8:03 left in the half. The second took 50 seconds and four plays, with Dave Colonna catching a 25-yard scoring pass over the middle with 2:31 to go in the half.

Brown finished the night completing 17-of-30 pass attempts for 268 yards and three touchdowns.

Duke had 416 total yards on 59 plays from scrimmage while Texas Tech ran 82 plays for 523 yards.

Duke had one last first-half possession, starting at its 39 with 31 seconds remaining. The Blue Devils tried their "huddle play" — four players gathering around the ball in the backfield but Brown was dropped for a seven-yard loss.

Texas Tech quickly regained the second half momentum. The Red Raiders stayed on the ground for 11 plays and 62 yards and capped the 6:12 drive with a one-yard run by reserve Anthony Lynn.

The Red Raiders upped the lead to 42-14 entering the fourth quarter.

Hines finished his Duke career with another stellar performance, catching six passes for 112 yards while Duke's 1,000-yard rusher, Randy Cuthbert, could manage just 32 yards on five attempts. A two-time All-America pick and the 1989 ACC Player of the Year, Hines ended his career as Duke's all-time leader in career catches, yards, touchdowns and 100-yard receiving games.

The game also was Spurrier's last as the coach of the Blue Devils. He took over the Florida program, his alma mater, following the season. The two-time ACC Coach of the Year pick finished his Duke head coaching career with a 20-13-1 record.

The Blue Devils battled back from a disastrous first quarter to tie Wisconsin at 13-13 in the second half of the 1995 Hall of Fame Bowl. But when push came to shove, it was the Badgers' huge offensive line that did the pushing and shoving, paving the way for the 241 rushing yards by Terrell Fletcher and a 34-20 Wisconsin win.

Wisconsin opened the scoring just six minutes into the contest when Jeff Messenger returned a Spence Fischer interception 19 yards for a Badger touchdown. Fischer actually had three interceptions in the game's first eight minutes after throwing just five interceptions in Duke's last nine regular season games.

The Duke defense kept the game close with a fourth down hold at the Duke 3 and then forcing Wisconsin to kick two long field goals in the first quarter.

Fischer rebounded in the second frame, directing the Blue Devils to two scoring drives, including a 13-play, 90-yard drive capped by a Robert Baldwin 7-yard run for paydirt. At the end of the half placekicker Tom Cochran was true on a 30-yard effort to make it just 13-10 heading into the locker room.

Duke responded in the second half with another Cochran field goal 6:30 into the third quarter to tie the score at 13 apiece.

After that, the Badgers' offensive line took full force, marching 78 yards on 10 plays - all on the ground to take a 19-13 lead. Ray Farmer blocked the point after to leave the Blue Devils just six behind. Wisconsin scored the eventual winning score midway through the fourth quarter when quarterback Darrell Bevell hooked up with Jason Burns for an 11-yard touchdown. The two-point conversion made it 27-13.

Even then, the Blue Devils were not through. Fischer rallied the Blue Devils to an 80-yard scoring march on 10 plays, topped by another Baldwin scoring run with just 4:10 to play.

Duke's defense couldn't hold in the end. On third and one at the Duke 49-yard line with just barely two minutes to play, Fletcher galloped 49 yards for paydirt and the clincher for the Badgers.

On the offensive side of the ball, Duke turned to its passing game and the arm of quarterback Spence Fischer. Fischer completed 28-of-46 passes for 314 yards, connecting with tight end Bill Khayat 11 times for 109 of those yards. Wide receiver Jon Jensen had six catches for 97 additional yards.

However, the Blue Devils could not get a throw into the endzone, as Duke's two touchdowns came from the rushing efforts of Robert Baldwin, the 1994 ACC Player of the Year and third team All-America pick, who rushed for 70 yards on 21 carries on the day.

"Our players fought back from adversity and kept the outcome in doubt until the final two minutes," said Goldsmith, the 1994 National Coach of the Year.
