Krzyzewskiville

Though tents popped up from time to time at Duke before the arrival of Mike Krzyzewski in 1980, Krzyzewskiville — named “Tent City” prior to that — came to form as we know it today in 1986 when the popularity of the team soared with its immense success. After its humble beginnings when only a handful of students erected tents in the courtyard area outside of Cameron Indoor Stadium, Krzyzewskiville has grown and is now an integral part of the Duke culture. Today, more than a thousand students camp out for their place in line in order to get the best seats at games, sometimes for as long as 10 weeks.

The increased growth of K-ville has brought on more rules. Currently, there are two games per season designated as “tenting” games, one of which is always the North Carolina contest. At least one person needs to man the tent at all times unless the head line monitor, who is essentially the mayor of K-ville, declares a grace period for weather. Generally, there are 12 people in each tent, which are often adorned with numbers and phrases to differentiate themselves.

Coach K addresses the students prior to each of the designated tenting games, and is known to send pizzas to them for their dedication to the Duke basketball team. Keeping true to its emphasis on schoolwork, Duke officials made sure that wireless internet access is available in K-ville during a recent courtyard renovation so students could handle their academic requirements during the spring semester.

Duke’s “Sixth Man”, better known as the Cameron crazies, is among the best cheering sections in all of sports. Their creativity is emulated, but never matched, at other schools around the nation. Largely because of their fervent support, the game experience at Cameron Indoor Stadium has become an event itself and a destination for many die-hard sports fans in the United States.
