Notes

- Head Coach Joanne P. McCallie enters her 10th year at Duke. She became the first NCAA Division I Head Coach to be named conference coach of the year in four different leagues and the first coach to lead teams to conference championships in four different leagues. She has won ACC Coach of the Year in three out of the last five seasons.
- Following leading Maryland to two straight NCAA Final Four appearances, 2015 Associated Press All-America Lexie Brown transferred to Duke and will be eligible in 2016-17 after sitting out last season. She will have two years of eligibility remaining.
- Rebecca Greenwell owns 145 three-pointers in two years at Duke, which already ranks eighth all-time with the Blue Devils. Greenwell is only 72 points shy of reaching 1,000 career points.
- Junior transfer Lexie Brown will be eligible in 2016-17, after sitting out last season. In two years at Maryland, Brown was an Associated Press All-America as a sophomore. She drained 120 three-pointers, while scoring 825 points, dishing 310 assists and swiping 127 steals. Brown started 66-of-70 contests.
- The duo of Greenwell/Brown are expected to be one of the top shooting combos in the nation as they have combined to hit 265 three-pointers.
- Senior Oderah Chidom looks to build off the end of her junior campaign where she averaged 14.0 points, 10.0 rebounds, 2.0 blocks and 1.0 assists in the ACC Tournament. She also averaged 14.0 points, 7.6 rebounds, 2.6 blocks and 1.5 assists over the final eight contests.
