The Blue Devils were coached by Dan Brooks, who was making his ninth appearance in the NCAA Championship in 1998.

BLUE DEVILS IN THE NCAA'S

This marks the 26th consecutive year there has been a regional system for women's golf. Duke has advanced 22 of the last 24 times, finishing in the top four of the regional in 20 of the 22 years the squad has advanced.

Duke has posted five individual medalists at the regionals as Beth Bauer won the East Regional in 1999 after shooting 74-70-71=215, Virada Nirapathpongorn won in 2001 with a 65-73-71=209, Leigh Anne Hardin won in 2002 with rounds of 71-67-72=210, Anna Grzebien won in 2005 with rounds of 73-69-67=209 and Leona Maguire won in 2015 with rounds of 72-78-72=212.

BIRDIES FOR BABIES

Spearheaded by junior Virginia Elena Carta, the Blue Devils announced a fundraising program benefitting the Duke Children's Neonatal and Pediatric Intensive Care Units called Birdies for Babies this winter. Duke has raised $6,396.25 so far this season.

Those looking to support Duke women's golf's partnership with the Duke Children's can make pledges per birdie. Pledges will start at $0.50 and high pledge increments are welcome. If the Blue Devils register an eagle (counts as two birdies), albatross (three birdies) and hole-in-one (four birdies) they will count as stated. Each pledge will receive an autographed photo of the Duke women's golf team.

ACC CHAMPIONS ONCE AGAIN

For the 21st time in school history, Duke won the ACC Championship as the top-seeded and fifth-ranked Blue Devils compiled an impressive 15-under-par, 849, to win by 27 strokes at the Grandover Resort & Conference Center East Course in Greensboro, N.C.

Blue Devil senior Leona Maguire won her third ACC Individual crown as she outlasted teammate Jaravee Boonchant in three playoff holes to win the title. The duo birdied the final hole of their rounds on No. 18 to finish in a tie at six-under, 210, and needed three playoff holes to decide the winner in pouring down rain.

Duke carded rounds of 282, 281 and 286 over the three days to produce a 15-under-par, 849, to finish 27 strokes ahead of Florida State (876). Clemson (877), Virginia (885) and Wake Forest (890) rounded out the top five teams. The 15-under, 849, was the lowest 54-hole ledger in Blue Devil ACC Championship history besting a five-under, 859, a year ago.

It marked the 20th ACC Championship under the direction of Brooks and the second straight. The win was the first of the spring season for the Blue Devils and the fourth victory of the 2017-18 campaign.

Duke featured four golfers in the top five of the leaderboard after it was all said and done. Maguire (1st), Boonchant (2nd), sophomore Ana Belac (T3rd) and junior Virginia Elena Carta (T5th).

Maguire's ACC Individual title was the third over her impressive four-year career as she also won the trophy's in 2015 and 2017. She joined only Duke standout Amanda Blumenherst (2006-08) as three-time ACC individual champions in league history.

"We're all very excited to welcome Gina onto our team and she's excited to join us," said Brooks. "Her enthusiasm for our team has been strong for years. That sort of passion for what we're all about, combined with great talent, can lead to a lot of fun. I can't wait for her to join us."

A two-time winner on the AJGA at the 2016 Rolex Girls Junior Championship and 2014 AJGA Junior at Cattail Creek, Kim is currently ranked No. 6 overall in the Rolex AJGA ranking and fifth in the Golfweek listing. - ▶ Duke was tabbed preseason No. 5 in the Golfweek top 25 rankings, while Leona Maguire earned First Team All-America.
- ▶ Duke cruised to the Jim West Challenge in the season opener. The Blue Devils carded a school-record 33-under-par, 819, on their way to totaling a 22-stroke victory. It was the first season-opening win since the 2006-07 campaign when the Blue Devils claimed the Mason Rudolph Championship in Nashville, Tenn. The Blue Devils carded an 18-hole school-record, 269, in the first round, before finishing the 36-hole opening day with a school-record 26-under-par, 542.
- ▶ Senior Leona Maguire registered her eighth collegiate victory at the Jim West Challenge as she turned in a school and tournament-record 13-under-par, 200, with rounds of 67, 63 and 70. Maguire collected a school-record 12-under, 130, in the opening two rounds with scores of 67 and 63. Her second round included the tied for second-lowest 18-hole score in Duke history with a bogey-free, eight-under-par, 63. She missed tying Liz Janangelo's record of 62 by one stroke. Maguire now ranks third all-time at Duke with eight wins and is four away from Amanda Blumenherst and Mary Anne Widman (12).
- ▶ With her five-under-par, 66, in the first round of the Jim West Challenge, Jaravee Boonchant matched the Duke record for lowest 18-hole ledger by a freshman in their first collegiate round. She equaled Brittany Lang's five-under score from the NCAA Fall Preview in 2003. Lang signed for a five-under, 67. With a three-day total of 205, Boonchant tied for the third-lowest score by a Duke freshman in Blue Devil history.
- ▶ Ana Belac opened the season with 56 straight holes without a bogey. She was bogey-free in the Jim West Challenge.
- ▶ Duke carded a school-record 17-under-par, 271, in the second round of the Tar Heel Invitational. The Blue Devils went on to shoot 31-under-par, 833, to win by one stroke over Alabama. - ▶ The Blue Devils won their third tournament of the fall at The Landfall Tradition. After leading by one through 36 holes, the final round was cancelled due to inclement weather and unplayable conditions. Sophomore Ana Belac notched her first collegiate victory as she tied with Beth Lillie of Virginia.
- ▶ Duke shot a school-record 59-under-par in the fall as the Blue Devils won three of four tournaments.
- ▶ The Blue Devils opened the spring with a disappointing 41-over-par and finished eighth.
- ▶ Duke turned in a 19-under-par ledger to finish second at the Evans Derby Experience, its best placement of the spring so far.
- ▶ After winning three tournaments in the fall, Duke failed to win a regular season tournament in the spring. The Blue Devils also have not fielded an injury-free or sickness free lineup so far this spring.
- ▶ Leona Maguire won her third ACC Individual Championship in a three-hole playoff against teammate Jaravee Boonchant. She joined Duke great Amanda Blumenherst as only three-time ACC champions in league history
- ▶ Duke won its 21st overall ACC Championship in school history and Dan Brooks registered his 20th over his 34 years. The 20 titles is tied for the second-most in ACC history by one coach.
