PLAYER NOTES

- The seven blocked shots by junior Marques Bolden were a career high and tied the Maui Invitational single-game record, which had been set eight previous times. The last time was seven blocks by Arizona State's Tommy Smith versus Utah in 2002.
- Bolden's 25 minutes matched a career high, set two previous times, including against Kentucky in the season-opener.
- Freshmen Tre Jones and RJ Barrett each played 39 minutes, matching the Duke record for most minutes in a Maui Invitational game (Chris Duhon versus Missouri, 1997 and Roshown McLeod versus Arizona, 1997).
- Barrett's nine rebounds were a career high. He has had four or more rebounds in each game this season.
- Three different Blue Devils had nine rebounds (Barrett, Bolden, Zion Williamson), while six had four or more.
- With 114 points and 102 points, respectively, Barrett and Williamson have the first and third-most points by a Duke freshman through a season's first five games. Jabari Parker (112 points) in 2013-14 held the previous record.
