Duke was picked as the ACC preseason favorite for the 18th time in the 50-year history of the poll and the 17th time under Coach K.

BROtherhood INKS TOP CLASS

Duke's freshman class of RJ Barrett, Tre Jones, Cam Reddish, Zion Williamson and Joey Baker entered the program as the nation's No. 1 class.

Barrett, a native of Mississauga, Ontario, was the class' overall No. 1 prospect, followed by No. 2 Williamson, No. 3 Reddish and No. 10 Jones.

It is the third consecutive season that Duke has landed ESPN's No. 1-ranked recruit, as Barrett's signing followed Marvin Bagley III in 2017 and Harry Giles in 2016.

The top four were each rated as five-star recruits and each was a McDonald's All-American. Baker was a four-star prospect in the 2019 class.

Barrett was named the 2017-18 Gatorade National Boys Basketball Player of the Year, and also tapped the 2018 Morgan Wooten National Player of the Year. He Duke's ninth Wooten winner (most all-time).

- The series, produced by Intersport, followed the team from its first time together on campus, through the Canada trip and into the final preparations for the season-opener versus Kentucky in the Champions Classic.

McDonald's ALL-AMERICANS

- Including four of this year's freshmen (Barrett, Jones, Reddish, Williamson), Duke has signed 76 McDonald's All-Americans all-time -- the most of any NCAA program.

- Mike Krzyzewski has signed 62 McDonald's All-Americans - the most all-time by a coach - and has added at least one to his roster for 33 consecutive years.

DUKE TIES SCHOOL'S DRAFT RECORD

» Duke matched a program record with four selections in the 2019 NBA Draft, including two of the top seven picks and three first-round selections.

» Freshman Marvin Bagley III went second overall to Sacramento, classmate Wendell Carter Jr., went seventh to Chicago, senior Grayson Allen was the 21st pick by Utah, and freshman Gary Trent Jr., went in the second round to Portland.

» The Blue Devils now boast 44 all-time first-round picks—the third-best total in history.

» Bagley and Carter in the lottery gave head coach Mike Krzyzewski 25 lottery selections—extending the record for most lottery picks for a school and coach. Duke has boasted a top-three pick in each of the last five NBA Drafts, surpassing the record of four straight by UCLA between 1974 and 1977.

» Going undrafted, but showing well in the NBA Combine and the NBA Summer League for Houston, Trevor Duval inked a two-way contract with Milwaukee.

» Duke has 25 former players on active NBA rosters—the most of any team in a single season in the history of the ACC.

» Besser funded the Walk On America campaign to raise money and awareness of the Intellectual and Developmental Disability (IDD) community. Brennan and his sister Rachel were compelled to action by the challenges faced every day by their sister Jacqueline, who is non-verbal.

» Nearly $350,000 has been raised thus far as Besser rode into New York City in August to complete his 3,553-mile, 64-day trek. He stopped at nearly 50 cities, meeting fans and conducting basketball clinics over his two-month adventure from coast to coast.

Now in his 39th season at Duke, Mike Krzyzewski - a Naismith Hall of Fame coach, five-time national champion and 12-time Final Four participant - has built a dynasty that few programs in the history of the game can match.

- 1,106 career wins (most in NCAA history)

Coach K became the Division I men’s career wins leader on Nov. 15, 2011, at Madison Square Garden, moving past his former coach Bob Knight with his 903rd victory. His historic 1,000th career victory came against St. John’s at The World’s Most Famous Arena on Jan. 25, 2015, as he became the first Division I men’s basketball coach to achieve a four-figure win total.

Krzyzewski’s 1,033 victories at Duke are an NCAA record by a coach at one school. With 1,033 of the Blue Devils’ 2,150 all-time victories, Coach K has presided over nearly half (48 percent) of the men’s basketball wins in Duke history.

Krzyzewski has won a league-record 474 ACC games (regular season and tournament), passing former North Carolina head coach Dean Smith (422) on Feb. 4, 2015. He has also won an ACC-record 176 conference road games.

Coach K’s five national championships are the second-most in NCAA history. Krzyzewski and former Connecticut coach Jim Calhoun are the only coaches in NCAA history to win national championships in three different decades.

Coach K has led the Blue Devils into the NCAA Tournament 34 times - more than any other coach in NCAA history. He has taken Duke to the NCAA Tournament in each of the last 23 seasons, the longest active streak by a coach and tied for the longest in NCAA history (Dean Smith, 23).

Krzyzewski holds NCAA Tournament records for games coached (123) and wins (94) while ranking second all-time and leading active coaches with a .764 NCAA Tournament winning percentage (min. 20 games). He has reached the Sweet 16 on 24 occasions, five more than any other coach in NCAA history, and has advanced to the Elite Eight 15 times.

Of the 1,313 games Krzyzewski has coached at Duke, 1,168 - 88.6 percent - have been as a ranked team. The Blue Devils are 951-217 (.814) as a ranked team under Coach K.

Coach K has taken top-ranked Duke teams into games on 239 occasions and compiled a 208-31 (.870) record as the AP’s No. 1 team, ranking first in poll history in number of games and second in wins as coach of a top-ranked squad.

Krzyzewski has tutored 61 NBA Draft picks during his time at Duke, including a total of 38 first-round selections that leads all active coaches. Duke has had at least one player taken in 31 of the 38 NBA Drafts during the Krzyzewski Era.

Since the inception of the NBA Draft Lottery in 1985, Coach K and Duke have produced 25 lottery picks - a draft-record total for both a school and a coach.

Through the 2017-18 season, Coach K’s former Duke players have accumulated $1.37 billion in NBA salaries. Lottery selections who played for Krzyzewski at Duke have combined to earn approximately $950 million, an average of just over $45 million per individual.

Under Coach K’s watch, Duke has produced multiple All-ACC Academic selections in 11 consecutive years. The 2015 NCAA championship team featured a program-high five All-ACC Academic honorees. Quin Snyder, Amile Jefferson and Grayson Allen are the only players in Duke history to earn All-ACC Academic honors four times. Jefferson, a three-time captain, departed the university in 2017 with both bachelor’s and master’s degrees.

Krzyzewski has had six players collect a total of nine CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, headlined by two-time first-team honorees Battier (2000, 2001) and Mason Plumlee (2012, 2013). Allen became the sixth in 2016 when he garnered second-team accolades.

Fittingly, Coach K has earned nearly every award imaginable. The crown jewel of that haul, however, came in 2001 when he was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Since his enshrinement in Springfield, Mass., Krzyzewski has also been inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame (2009), the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame (2010) and the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame (2011).

While establishing Duke as one of college basketball’s dynastic programs, Krzyzewski simultaneously spent more than a decade as one of the architects of the revitalization of USA Basketball. During his tenure at the helm of the program, the U.S. National Team amassed an extraordinary 88-1 record and claimed gold medals at the 2007 FIBA Americas Championship, 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championship, 2012 London Olympics, 2014 FIBA World Cup and 2016 Rio Olympics, as well as a bronze medal at the 2006 FIBA World Championship.

Coach K was 24-0 in the Olympics as head coach of the USMNT and his time at the helm ended with the team in the midst of a National Team-record 76-game winning streak that began in 2006.

Giving Back

Krzyzewski has been diligently committed to public service, both locally and nationally, throughout his coaching career. He is currently serving on boards for, while also assuming vital roles with, the Duke Children’s Hospital, the Jimmy V Foundation for Cancer Research, the NABC Foundation, the CEO Roundtable on Cancer and the Emily Krzyzewski Center.

Coach K’s philanthropic activities also include the establishment and funding of the Emily Krzyzewski Center, a community center in Durham named in honor of his late mother. The Center’s mission is to inspire economically disadvantaged students to dream big, act with character and purpose, strive for academic excellence and reach their highest potential as future citizen leaders.

In May 2018, Coach K and his wife Mickie announced their single-largest philanthropic gift, a $3 million donation to the Emily K Center to kick start a $15 million fundraising campaign for the Durham-based Center.

ADDED INT’L EXPERIENCE

Bolden added to his USA Basketball resume in June 2017 when he was picked to participate in the Men’s U19 World Cup Team training camp. He was one of just 25 players selected for the camp.

Bolden had previous USA experience as a member of the 2015 Men’s Junior National Team and the 2016 Junior Select National Team that won the Nike Hoop Summit.

OPENING-NIGHT START

Bolden earned the start in the opening-night win over Kentucky, having started both exhibition games for Duke.

Matching his career-high of 25 minutes, Bolden was 3-of-4 from the floor, with four boards, one assist and one block.

TRENDING UP

Over his last 23 games (including the final 16 of 2017-18), Bolden is shooting 42-of-59 (.719) from the field.

That stretch comes after he missed seven games during the middle of last season with a knee injury.

Bolden was 20-of-40 from the field before his injury last season.

He came a rebound shy of his second career double (11 points, nine rebounds), and recorded a Maui Invitational record seven blocks, in the win over No. 8 Auburn in the semifinals.

He has 16 blocked shots this season, with 10 coming over the last three games.

HONORS & AWARDS
Preseason candidate for Bob Cousy Award
Maui Invitational All-Tournament Team

BLOODLINE
Jones is the younger brother of Tyus Jones, who played at Duke and was the Most Outstanding Player of the 2015 Final Four as Duke won the National Championship.
Jones oldest brother Jadee played for Furman

FLOOR GENERAL
A three from Jones were Duke’s first points of the season, on its way to a 118-84 win over Kentucky.
His productive stat line against UK included four rebounds and a game-high seven assists against no turnovers in 30 minutes.
His seven assists were the fourth-most by a Duke freshman in a debut game, and matched the seven by his brother Tyus in his debut in 2014.
He leads the ACC in total assists (41) and assist-to-turnover ratio (5.13). That ratio is best among any freshman in the power conferences.

A MAUI HIGH
Jones was named to the Maui Invitational All-Tournament team after scoring double-digits in each game, including a career-high 17 in the title game versus Gonzaga.
Jones was 16-of-27 (.593) from the field in the tournament, with nine rebounds, 11 assists and four steals.
He played 39 minutes each in the semifinal game and championship game.

SEEING DOUBLE
Jones is coming off a turnover-free, eight-assist performance against Indiana and has committed just eight turnovers in 217 minutes this season.
The early returns on Tre are strikingly similar to the early-season numbers by his brother, Tyus, who was the freshman guard on Duke’s 2015 national championship team.
Tre, Tyus, Bobby Hurley (1991) and Trevon Duval (2017) are the only Duke players in history with 40+ assists through a season’s first seven games.

JONES BROTHERS | FIRST 7 GAMES OF CAREER
Tre Jones (2018) 41 assists, 8 turnovers
Tyus Jones (2015) 42 assists, 7 turnovers

Selected a 2018-19 team captain

BIG OPENER AGAINST THE ‘CATS
A summer of development paid big dividends for White in the season-opening win over Kentucky.
The junior captain came off the bench and did the dirty work for Duke, collecting a career-high and team-leading 11 boards, with a career-high three assists and two steals.
He scored a then-career-high nine points against, only set a new career-high with 10 points and a career-high four blocks in the Eastern Michigan win.

AUSSIE GETS IN DONE IN MAUI
White poured in a career-high 12 points, and finished two boards shy of his first career double-double, in the win over San Diego State.
With his dad in the stands watching him play for the first time as a Blue Devil, White scored 21 points and pulled down 20 boards in Maui.
He has knocked down a three in each of the seven games this season.
White has already established career highs this season in nearly every offensive category.

WHITE NAMED CAPTAIN
White has been named a captain for the 2018-19 season by head coach Mike Krzyzewski.
He joins classmate, and roommate, Javin DeLaurier, as Duke’s captains for this season.
“I’m honored to be selected a captain,” said White. “I’m looking forward to the opportunity, and the chance to be a captain alongside my teammate and best friend, is tremendously special.”

THE HEIGHT OF EFFICIENCY

The stat line speaks for itself – 28 points in 23 minutes with seven rebounds, two assists, one block and one steal in the Kentucky win for Williamson.

The 6-7, 285-pound rookie did his damage on 11-of-13 (.846) shooting from the floor and made 5-of-7 at the free throw line. The first bucket of his Duke career was a three.

By FG percentage, he set a Duke Champions Classic record, surpassing an 8-of-10 (.800) performance by Jahlil Okafor in the 2014 Champions Classic versus Michigan State.

His 28 points were the third-best for Duke in a Champions Classic game, topped only by Grayson Allen’s 37 last year and RJ Barrett’s 33.
