YALE (4-2) at DUKE (8-1)

Sat., Dec. 8, 2018 - 5:30 p.m.
Cameron Indoor Stadium
Durham, N.C.
TV: ESPN

YALE TALE

For the second straight Saturday, Yale will get a crack at an ACC opponent. The first went quite well. The Bulldogs knocked off Miami 77-73 in the Hoophall Invitational, earning themselves some national attention. They’ll get an opportunity to make an even bigger statement this Saturday when they travel to Cameron Indoor Stadium to face No. 3 Duke. Tip is slated for 5:30 p.m. and the game will air nationally on ESPN with Doug Sherman and Jordan Cornette on the call.

Yale (4-2) has won its last three games, including a 97-87 victory over Lehigh on Wednesday night in its home opener. During the streak, the Bulldogs are shooting 54 percent from the field and averaging 92.3 points. Through games of Wednesday, Yale was 10th in the nation in field goal percentage (.514), 14th in scoring offense (87.5 ppg.) and 17th in three-point field goal percentage (.404). Yale’s four seniors – Blake Reynolds, Trey Phillips, Alex Copeland and Thomas Ryan – are all making their second trip to Cameron. They were rookies in 2015-16 when the Bulldogs last played in Durham. Only Reynolds saw action in the game, an 80-61 Duke victory. He had four points and four rebounds in 15 minutes off the bench.

The teams then met again later that season in the second round of the NCAA Tournament two days after the Bulldogs upset Baylor in the opening round. The Blue Devils built an early 27-point lead before the Bulldogs nearly pulled off the biggest comeback in tournament history. Yale was within three in the final minute, but Duke held on for a 71-64 victory.

Yale has had success against ACC teams during James Jones’ tenure as the Joel E. Smilow, Class of 1954 Head Coach of the Bulldogs. In addition to Miami, Jones owns victories over Clemson in 2001-02 and Boston College in 2010-11. Yale also has beaten power conference foes California, earlier this season, Washington, Baylor (2016 NCAA Tournament) UConn, then the defending NCAA champions, Rutgers and Penn State in Jones’ time at Yale. This year’s Bulldogs are one of the deepest in Jones’ tenure. Six players scored in double figures in Wednesday’s win over Lehigh and seven are averaging at least 8.8 points, led by junior Miye Oni. Oni had 29 points in the win over Lehigh on Wednesday night in its home opener.

Jordan Bruner (13.0 ppg.), Copeland (11.2 ppg.) and Azar Swain (10.8 ppg.) also average double figures. In addition, Phillips, Yale’s best on-the-ball defender, is coming off his best game of the season. He had 20 points on 5-of-7 shooting from the field vs. Lehigh.

BULLDOGS OPEN SEASON IN CHINA

Yale opened the season with a once-in-a-lifetime trip to China for the Pac-12 China Game. The team arrived on Sunday, Nov. 4 and spent the days leading up to the game learning about China's history, culture and business. The Bulldogs visited Alibaba headquarters in Hangzhou where Joe Tsai, a 1986 Yale graduate and lacrosse player, spoke to them about the e-commerce industry and China's economy. In addition, the team spent time with children from the Yao Ming Foundation at Shanghai Disneyland and toured the Shanghai Municipal Museum. Then came a dominant performance in the win over Cal. Miye Oni and Azar Swan scored 16 points apiece to lead a balanced attack. Yale controlled the game at both ends of the floor and led for 38 of the game's 40 minutes. A 15-0 run midway through the first half helped the Bulldogs seize control, and they led by as many as 21 points in the second half. Yale also played an exhibition game in China, defeating a Chinese University All-Star team 93-84 in Suzhou.

2018-19 SCHEDULE NOTES

It will be another busy season of travel for the Yale men's basketball team. The Bulldogs will head to all parts of the country during non-conference play, including south to face Duke at Cameron Indoor Stadium and Miami at American Airlines Arena. There are also trips to the Midwest (Memphis), the West Coast (Cal State Northridge) and Northern New England (Vermont). And, oh by the way, the season kicked off with a journey to the other side of the world to face California in the Pac 12 China Game in Shanghai.

In all, there are 27 games on the schedule, including 12 in the friendly confines of the John J. Lee Amphitheater. There also is an opportunity for two more as the venerable arena will host the Ivy League Tournament in March.

A closer look at the 2018-19 schedule:

- Six opponents reached the post season last year, including four (Duke, Miami, Iona, Penn) that played in the NCAA Tournament. Vermont and Harvard participated in the NIT.
- The 7,337 miles Yale traveled for the game in China was the longest for a regular season game in school history.
- The home opener won’t come until Dec. 5 when the Bulldogs host Lehigh.
- Yale’s last game with Duke was quite memorable. It came in the second round of the 2016 NCAA Tournament at the Dunkin Donuts Center in Providence two days after the Bulldogs upset Baylor in the opening round. The Blue Devils built an early 27-point lead before the Bulldogs nearly pulled off the biggest comeback in tournament history. Yale was within three in the final minute, but Duke held on for a 71-64 victory.
- The game with Miami is part of the fourth annual Hoophall Miami Invitational presented by Citr. It is one of four games on Dec. 1 at American Airlines Arena, the home of the Miami Heat. The other games feature Georgia Tech vs. St. John’s, North Carolina State vs. Vanderbilt and Texas Tech vs. Memphis.
- Yale’s three home games in December all come against top mid-major programs. Lehigh (Dec. 5) has been a perennial contender in the Patriot League, Albany (Dec. 11) has won at least 20 games in five of the last six years and Iona (Dec. 22) has been in the NCAA Tournament in each of the last two seasons.
- For the second straight year, the Bulldogs won’t play a game against another Connecticut school.
- Ivy League play kicks off at Brown on Jan. 19. The Bulldogs have three of their first four Ivy games on the road.

IVY MADNESS HEADED TO LEE AMPHITHEATER

The 2019 Ivy League Men’s and Women’s Basketball Tournaments will be held at the John J. Lee Amphitheater at Payne Whitney Gymnasium. The 2019 tournaments will be showcased on March 16 and 17, with the top four men’s and women’s teams competing for the right to represent the League in the NCAA Basketball Championships.

Saturday will feature four semifinals: two men's games – 12:30 p.m. and 3 p.m. – and two women’s games – 6 p.m. and approximately 30 minutes after the first women’s semifinal. The men’s championship is set for 12 p.m., with the women’s championship game to begin at 4 p.m. All six games of the tournaments will be featured on the ESPN networks.

OFF COURT SUCCESS, INCLUDES TWO RHODES SCHOLARS

In addition to success on the court, Yale players have shined off it as well. During James Jones’ tenure as head coach, two Yale players have been named Rhodes Scholars. The most recent is J.T. Flowers, who played for Yale in 2013-14, and was recently selected as a 2018 Rhodes Scholar. In 2014-15, Matt Townsend ’15 was selected as a Rhodes Scholar and was named the men's basketball Academic All-American of the Year. Javier Duren ’15 was a candidate for the 2014-15 All-state Good Works Team. In 2015-16, Justin Sears was a finalist for the national Senior CLASS Award, which focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.
#32 Blake Reynolds
Sr. • F • 6-7 • 235

NOTES
• Leads the Ivy League in free throw percentage (.944, 12 of 13)
• Had his streak of consecutive free throws made end at 40 in the game at Memphis. The streak, which dated back to last season, is a new school record.
• Scored 22 points, including 16 in the two overtime periods, at Memphis.
• Finished second in the Ivy League in free throw percentage (.867) and 10th in steals (1.1) per game last year.
• Started 25 of the 30 games he appeared in.
• Shot 95.5 percent (42-of-44) from the free throw line in Ivy games.
• Second on the team in scoring (11.2 ppg.), assists (82) and steals (32).
• Scored a career-high 26 points at Brown on 10-of-13 shooting from the field.
• Scored 25 points on 9-of-13 shooting from the field in the win at Lehigh.
• Recipient of the team’s Eggie Miles Award as the team’s top free throw shooter.
• Perhaps the most improved player in the Ivy League in his sophomore season. Shared the team lead in scoring (12.9 ppg.) after seeing limited action (13 games) in his rookie season.
• Tied for 10th in the league in scoring, 11th in field goal percentage (.484) and ninth in free throw percentage (.795)
• Scored 20 points or more six times
• Led team in scoring 10 times
• Free throw with 2.5 seconds left was the game-winning basket in 75-74 win at Brown
• Made his first career start in game at Sacred Heart
• Recipient of the team’s Most Improved Player award as well as the Eggie Miles Free Throw Award.
• Appeared in 13 games off the bench as a senior at Harvard-Westlake High School
• Two-time All-CIF selection
• Averaged 25.4 points, 3.2 assists and 3.3 steals as a senior
• Scored 1,475 career points, which is seventh on school’s all-time scoring list
• Set the school record with 11 steals in a game
• McDonald’s All-American nominee
• Helped lead Harvard-Westlake to the quarterfinals in the Division 4AA state championship.
• Twin sister Shea Copeland is sprinter on the Princeton women’s track & field team.
• Political science major

HEAD COACH JAMES JONES

• Longest tenured head coach in the Ivy League. In his 20th season at the helm in 2018-19.

• Winningest men’s basketball coach in school history with 292 victories. Third winningest coach in Ivy League history. His 159 Ivy wins are also the third most in league history.

• Ivy League and NABC District 13 Coach of the Year in 2015 and 2016

• In 2015-16, led the Bulldogs to the most successful season in school history. Yale won 23 games, the most since 1906-07, captured a second straight Ivy League title with a 13-1 record, matching the 1961-62 team for the best in school history, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 54 years where the Bulldogs upset Baylor to earn the first NCAA Tournament victory in school history.

• In 2014-15, guided the Bulldogs to 22 wins and a share of the Ivy title. One of the victories came over defending national champion UConn, just the second time an Ivy League team knocked off a defending NCAA champion.

• Under his leadership, Yale has a remarkable 42-14 Ivy League record over the last four years.

• Has led Yale to four postseason appearances – 2016 NCAA Tournament, 2014 and 2012 CollegeInsider.com Tournament, 2002 NIT.

• Bulldogs have won at least 10 Ivy games four times during his tenure and have had a fourth-place or better finish in the Ivy League for 18 straight seasons.

• In 2001-02, Jones led the Bulldogs to their first Ivy title since 1962-63 and the first postseason victory in school history. The team won 21 games and reached the second round of the NIT after a victory at Rutgers in the first round.

• Inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in 2015.

• Coached Matt Townsend ’15, who was selected as a Rhodes Scholar and was named the Men’s Basketball Academic All-American of the Year.

• Served as an assistant coach to Villanova’s Jay Wright for the 2007 USA Basketball Men’s Pan American Games Team.

• 1986 University at Albany graduate. Earned master’s in educational administration from Albany in 1995. Played for and coached with the legendary Dr. Richard Sauers at Albany.

• Younger brother Joe spent seven seasons as the head coach at Ivy League rival Columbia and is currently the head coach at Boston University.
