Coach K became the Division I men’s career wins leader on Nov. 15, 2011, at Madison Square Garden, moving past his former coach Bob Knight with his 903rd victory. His historic 1,000th career victory came against St. John’s at The World’s Most Famous Arena on Jan. 25, 2015, as he became the first Division I men’s basketball coach to achieve a four-figure win total.

Krzyzewski’s 1,036 victories at Duke are an NCAA record by a coach at one school. With 1,036 of the Blue Devils’ 2,153 all-time victories, Coach K has presided over nearly half (48 percent) of the men’s basketball wins in Duke history.

Krzyzewski has won a league-record 474 ACC games (regular season and tournament), passing former North Carolina head coach Dean Smith (422) on Feb. 4, 2015. He has also won an ACC-record 176 conference road games.

Coach K’s five national championships are the second-most in NCAA history. Krzyzewski and former Connecticut coach Jim Calhoun are the only coaches in NCAA history to win national championships in three different decades.

Coach K has led the Blue Devils into the NCAA Tournament 34 times – more than any other coach in NCAA history. He has taken Duke to the NCAA Tournament in each of the last 23 seasons, the longest active streak by a coach and tied for the longest in NCAA history (Dean Smith, 23).

Krzyzewski holds NCAA Tournament records for games coached (123) and wins (94) while ranking second all-time and leading active coaches with a .764 NCAA Tournament winning percentage (min. 20 games). He has reached the Sweet 16 on 24 occasions, five more than any other coach in NCAA history, and has advanced to the Elite Eight 15 times.

Of the 1,316 games Krzyzewski has coached at Duke, 1,171 - 88.6 percent - have been as a ranked team. The Blue Devils are 954-217 (.815) as a ranked team under Coach K.

Coach K has taken top-ranked Duke teams into games on 239 occasions and compiled a 208-31 (.870) record as the AP’s No. 1 team, ranking first in poll history in number of games and second in wins as coach of a top-ranked squad.

Krzyzewski has tutored 61 NBA Draft picks during his time at Duke, including a total of 38 first-round selections that leads all active coaches. Duke has had at least one player taken in 31 of the 38 NBA Drafts during the Krzyzewski Era.

Since the inception of the NBA Draft Lottery in 1985, Coach K and Duke have produced 25 lottery picks - a draft-record total for both a school and a coach.

Through the 2017-18 season, Coach K’s former Duke players have accumulated $1.37 billion in NBA salaries. Lottery selections who played for Krzyzewski at Duke have combined to earn approximately $950 million, an average of just over $45 million per individual.

Under Coach K’s watch, Duke has produced multiple All-ACC Academic selections in 11 consecutive years. The 2015 NCAA championship team featured a program-high five All-ACC Academic honorees. Quinn Snyder, Amile Jefferson and Grayson Allen are the only players in Duke history to earn All-ACC Academic honors four times. Jefferson, a three-time captain, departed the university in 2017 with both bachelor’s and master’s degrees.

Krzyzewski has had six players collect a total of nine CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, headlined by two-time first-team honorees Battier (2000, 2001) and Mason Plumlee (2012, 2013). Allen became the sixth in 2016 when he garnered second-team accolades.

Fittingly, Coach K has earned nearly every award imaginable. The crown jewel of that haul, however, came in 2001 when he was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Since his enshrinement in Springfield, Mass., Krzyzewski has also been inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame (2009), the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame (2010) and the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame (2011).

While establishing Duke as one of college basketball’s dynastic programs, Krzyzewski simultaneously spent more than a decade as one of the architects of the revitalization of USA Basketball. During his tenure at the helm of the program, the U.S. National Team amassed an extraordinary 88-1 record and claimed gold medals at the 2007 FIBA Americas Championship, 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championship, 2012 London Olympics, 2014 FIBA World Cup and 2016 Rio Olympics, as well as a bronze medal at the 2006 FIBA World Championship.

Coach K was 24-0 in the Olympics as head coach of the USMNT and his time at the helm ended with the team in the midst of a National Team-record 76-game winning streak that began in 2006.

Giving Back

Krzyzewski has been diligently committed to public service, both locally and nationally, throughout his coaching career. He is currently serving on boards for, while also assuming vital roles with, the Duke Children’s Hospital, the Jimmy V Foundation for Cancer Research, the NABC Foundation, the CEO Roundtable on Cancer and the Emily Krzyzewski Center.

Coach K’s philanthropic activities also include the establishment and funding of the Emily Krzyzewski Center, a community center in Durham named in honor of his late mother. The Center’s mission is to inspire economically disadvantaged students to dream big, act with character and purpose, strive for academic excellence and reach their highest potential as future citizen leaders.

In May 2018, Coach K and his wife Mickie announced their single-largest philanthropic gift, a $3 million donation to the Emily K Center to kick start a $15 million fundraising campaign for the Durham-based Center.

HISTORY-MAKER AT DUKE

RJ Barrett did his own stat-sheet stuffing in the Stetson win, flirting with a triple double, and becoming the first player in Duke history to record a game with 25+ points, 7+ rebounds, 7+ assists and 4+ steals.

In just 17 minutes, Barrett poured in 26 points, with seven rebounds, seven assists and four steals.

He was close to posting just the fourth triple double in school history, and the first since Sheldon Williams versus Maryland on Jan. 11, 2006 (19 points, 11 rebounds, 10 blocks).

In the Yale win, Barrett became the first freshman in Duke history to go for 30+ points, 5+ rebounds and 5+ assists with his 30-7-6 effort.

ROOKIE ADJUSTMENTS

Since returning from Maui, Barrett has picked up his efficiency and is shooting 62 percent from the field over the last four games.

The rookie has nearly doubled his rebounds per game over the last four games, including a career-high 15 in the Hartford win.

REDDISH’S DEEP RANGE
Reddish was the third Blue Devil rookie to surpass the 20-point mark in the Kentucky win, scoring 22 in 24 minutes.
He also chipped in three assists and matched the record of four steals by a Duke player in a debut game.
He knocked down all seven free throws against UK.
Reddish followed the Kentucky performance by setting a Duke freshman record with seven threes against Army.
His 10 treys through two games were more than any Duke freshman over the first two games of a season, and one shy of the Duke overall record through two games.
His 27 three-pointers are second-most in the ACC this season.

Selected a 2018-19 team captain

BIG OPENER AGAINST THE ‘CATS

A summer of development paid big dividends for White in the season-opening win over Kentucky.

The junior captain came off the bench and did the dirty work for Duke, collecting a career-high and team-leading 11 boards, with a career-high three assists and two steals.

He scored a then-career-high nine points against, only set a new career-high with 10 points and a career-high four blocks in the Eastern Michigan win.

AUSSIE GETS IN DONE IN MAUI

White poured in a career-high 12 points, and finished two boards shy of his first career double-double, in the win over San Diego State.

With his dad in the stands watching him play for the first time as a Blue Devil, White scored 21 points and pulled down 20 boards in Maui.

White has already established career highs this season in nearly every offensive category.

FLIRTING WITH DOUBLE-DOUBLES

White came a point shy of his first career double-double with nine points and a career best 12 rebounds in the Yale win.

The junior was also a point shy of a double-double in the Kentucky win (9-11) and two rebounds shy in the San Diego State win (12-8).

His 68 points and 73 rebounds have already eclipsed the total from his first two seasons combined (43 points, 55 rebounds).

WHITE NAMED CAPTAIN

White has been named a captain for the 2018-19 season by head coach Mike Krzyzewski.

He joins classmate, and roommate, Javin DeLaurier, as Duke’s captains for this season.

“I’m honored to be selected a captain,” said White. “I’m looking forward to the opportunity, and the chance to be a captain alongside my teammate and best friend, is tremendously special.”

Williamson is out-dunking Duke's opponents this season, 25-24. The freshman is averaging 2.5 dunks per game, with a season high six coming against both Eastern Michigan and Indiana.

He is following in the footsteps of Marvin Bagley III, who broke Duke's single-season dunks record with 98 last season.

Bagley averaged 3.0 dunks per game last year en route to breaking the record of 87 set by Mason Plumlee in 2013.

Williamson became the first player under Coach K, and just second at Duke, to go for 25+ points and 15+ rebounds and 5+ blocked shots in the same game with his 27-16-6 effort against Army.

Williamson stuffed the stat sheet again in the Indiana win, scoring 25 points with six rebounds, four assists, two steals and two blocks.

He became just the fourth player (fifth instance) of a Duke player going for 25+ points, 4+ rebounds, 4+ assists, 1+ steal, 1+ block in Duke history, joining Danny Ferry (twice), Shane Battier and Kyrie Irving.

The stat line spoke for itself -- 28 points in 23 minutes with seven rebounds, two assists, one block and one steal in the Kentucky win for Williamson.

The 6-7, 285-pound rookie did his damage on 11-of-13 (.846) shooting from the floor and made 5-of-7 at the free throw line. The first bucket of his Duke career was a three.

By FG percentage, he set a Duke Champions Classic record, surpassing an 8-of-10 (.800) performance by Jahlil Okafor in the 2014 Champions Classic versus Michigan State.

His 28 points were the third-best for Duke in a Champions Classic game, topped only by Grayson Allen's 37 last year and RJ Barrett's 33.
