PLAYER NOTES

- Freshman Zion Williamson recorded his 14th double-double with 24 points and 14 rebounds, while adding three blocks and three steals.
- Williamson scored 20+ points in each of Duke's seven postseason games this season, the most in a single postseason in history by a Duke freshman, and tied for the second most all-time. Johnny Dawkins had eight 20-point games in 1986, while Shane Battier had seven in 2001.
- Williamson's 26.4 points per game in the postseason stand as Duke's highest for a single postseason, surpassing Jeff Mullins 24.9 average in the 1964 postseason.
- Williamson totaled 104 points in Duke's four NCAA Tournament games -- his 26.0-point average being Duke's third highest in a single NCAA Tournament behind Mullins (29.0) in 1964 and Bobby Hurley (28.5) in 1993.
- Williamson and classmate RJ Barrett each finished the season averaging 22.6 points per game, becoming the first freshman teammates in NCAA history to each average 20+ points for a season.
- Barrett scored 21 points with six rebounds and six assists. He was the only major conference player to score 13+ points in every game this season.
- Barrett finished his season with 860 points, the second-highest scoring season in Duke history behind J.J. Redick's 964 points as a senior in 2006.
- Junior Javin DeLaurier recorded his first career double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds.
