NEED TO KNOW

- Duke is coming off a solid season-opening win over La Salle Thursday afternoon to open the 2019 Carolina Nike Classic. The Blue Devils used a pair of second-half goals to earn their 27th opening day win in program history.
- The Blue Devils return seven starters from last season, with three of those having been in the top five on the team in points and goals.
- The Duke women’s soccer program welcomes a new face to the coaching staff in assistant coach Carla Overbeck, along with assistants Carla Overbeck and Lane Davis, who enter their 28th and fourth season, respectively.
- The Blue Devils bring the fifth-ranked recruiting class to Durham this year, marking the eighth-straight year Church has delivered a top 10 signing class.
- This weekend marks the 26th time that Duke has competed in the Carolina Nike Classic. It also marks the seventh time in the last eight seasons that the Blue Devils have opened the season away from home.

Nike
• In 2009, Duke University and Nike Inc. reached a 10-year sponsorship agreement that will supply all 26 of the Blue Devils’ athletics teams with uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment. Under the terms of the contract, Nike will phase in its exclusive agreement with all Duke Athletics teams over a three-year period beginning in 2008-09.

• Additionally, all officially licensed Blue Devils merchandise sold by Nike will comply with labor policies consistent with Duke’s position on worker’s rights. Duke has long been a leader in demanding manufacturers of licensed products protect the rights of workers.

• Nike will provide cash compensation annually to the Duke Department of Athletics over the term of the contract. Each year, one Duke student-athlete will receive a paid internship at Nike headquarters near Beaverton, Ore.

OPENING 2019 WITH A WIN...

After a quiet opening half, the No. 8 Duke Blue Devils (1-0-0) turned on the pressure and fired home a pair of goals to open the season with a 2-0 victory at UNC Soccer and Lacrosse Stadium against the La Salle Explorers (0-1-0).

Senior Ella Stevens began the second half surge for the Blue Devils in the 68th minute of action, scoring her first goal of the new campaign. The Grayson, Ga., native dribbled the ball past several defenders on the right side of the pitch, creating her own shot and delivering a strike just past the keeper’s outstretched hands to place Duke in the scoring column.

Sophomore MaryKate McGuire added insurance at the 86:22 mark to give the Blue Devils a 2-0 advantage. The second-year forward drove the ball a third of the field, splitting multiple defenders before slipping a ball past the goalkeeper for Duke’s second score of the contest.

The two goals propelled Duke to its 27th win on opening day in program history, while marking the second consecutive opening day win for the Blue Devils.

DWS PREPARED FOR 32ND SEASON OF PLAY...

The 2019 campaign marks the 32nd season of Duke women’s soccer. The Blue Devils own an all-time record of 398-222-64 across 31 seasons of play, including a 120-56-33 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Duke has made 24 all-time appearances in the NCAA Tournament, owning a record of 39-21-9 in tournament action.

Most recently, the Blue Devils advanced to the Round of 16 a season ago, marking their 15th tournament appearance in the last 16 years. Head coach Robbie Church is entering his 19th season at the helm for Duke. Church owns a career record of 235-122-48 across his 18 seasons in Durham.

THE TOBACCO ROAD RIVALRY...

Sunday’s matchup between the two Tobacco Road schools marks the first of two matchups between Duke and North Carolina in 2019. The first contest between the two schools will serve as a nonconference match up, while the second edition comes during conference play. The two teams have not met since the 2017 season, where the Tar Heels defeated the Blue Devils twice. North Carolina owns the series advantage between the two programs, 39-32-2, including a two-game winning streak.

RECAPping 2018 FOR DWS...

For the sixth time in the past eight seasons, the Duke women’s soccer program closed out the 2018 campaign nationally ranked in the top 10, as they received the No. 10 spot in the final United Soccer Coaches poll of the 2018 season.

Duke closed out its 31st year of play with 16 wins, fifth most in program history. The Blue Devils put together eight wins in ACC play to earn a second-place finish in the conference. Duke has finished in the top three in the league for the third-straight season, accumulating 25 conference wins for the best three-year stretch in ACC play in Duke history.

Led by five All-ACC selections, the Blue Devils made their 24th NCAA Tournament in history and sixth-straight appearance in the Round of 16. Kayla McCoy earned All-ACC First Team honors, while Taylor Racichpi landed on the second team and Ella Stevens on the third. Delaney Graham and Sydney Simmons rounded out Duke’s conference honorees, earning a spot on the ACC All-Freshman squad.

CHURCH ENTERS 19TH YEAR AS THE BLUE DEVIL BOSS...

Robbie Church is looking to build off another impressive season in Durham as he begins his 18th season at the helm of Duke women’s soccer. The 2017 ACC Coach of the Year and leader of the 2017 United Soccer Coaches National Staff of the Year will look to lead Duke to its 25th NCAA Tournament appearance in 2018.

In his 18 seasons, Church has amassed a 235-122-48 record and has won 54 matches over the last three seasons, guiding the Blue Devils to NCAA College Cup appearances in two of the four years. The Duke women’s soccer leader looks to continue the success he has had over the last 15 years with 218 wins, 15 NCAA Tournament appearances and three trips to the NCAA College Cup in 2011, 2015 and 2017.

NEW FACE ADDED TO THE COACHING STAFF...

One of the top young minds in the game joins the Duke women’s soccer coaching staff in 2019 in the addition of assistant coach Kieran Hall. Hall joins the DWS program after spending the last three seasons as a volunteer assistant coach with the Duke men’s soccer squad. In his three years, Hall helped Duke tally a 31-19-7 record, including a 24-11-5 showing in the last two seasons. Hall was an instrumental part in helping the Blue Devils earn a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances, as the program captured the No. 6 national seed in 2017-18 and reach the Round of 16 in both showings. The No. 6 seed marked the first time the men’s soccer program had earned a national seed since the 2009 season.

MARQUEE FRESHMAN CLASS FOR THE BLUE DEVILS...

Duke welcomes one of the top recruiting classes in the nation, as eight new faces comprise the Blue Devils’ No. 5 nationally ranked class, including Sarah Piper, Julia Burnell, Emmy Duerr, Julia Hannon, Natalie Maurer, Sarah Miller, Ruthie Jones and Sophie Jones. This is the eighth straight year that the Blue Devils have reeled in a top 10 recruiting class, as the squad showcases six players ranked in TopDrawerSoccer.com’s Top 150, including five inside the top 75. The six Top 150 players are the most in Duke history since the class of 2014.

RETURNING SCORERS FOR THE BLUE DEVILS...

Despite losing its top two scorers from a season ago, the Blue Devils return the trio of Karlie Paschall, MaryKate McGuire and Ella Stevens, who were top five for Duke in 2018 with 13 points apiece. Sophomore Mackenzie Pluck also added double digit points last season with 10. An All-Atlantic Region and All-ACC Selection in 2018, Stevens returns as Duke’s top assists leader from last season with 11.

DUKE IN THE PRESEASON TOP 10...

Duke is ranked 12th in the United Soccer Coaches Preseason Top 25 rankings, released last week. The Blue Devils were one of four ACC teams ranked in the top 10, and one of seven programs ranked inside the top 25.

Additionally, Duke has now been preseason ranked in the top 10 for the fifth time and top 15 for the sixth time over the last eight seasons. The Blue Devils checked in at No. 12 in Soccer America’s Preseason Women’s College Top 25.

BLUE DEVILS PICKED TO FINISH FOURTH IN THE ACC...

The Blue Devils were picked to finish fourth for a second year in a row, receiving 155 points in the ACC Preseason Coaches Poll. The trio of North Carolina (188 points), Florida State (185 points) and Virginia (163 points) took the top three spots ahead of Duke, while Clemson rounded out the top five with 121 points. Florida State received eight of the possible 14 first-place votes, with North Carolina collecting the other six.

STEvens AND JONES EARN TOpDRAwERsOCcER HONORS...

The duo of Ella Stevens and Sophie Jones have landed TopDrawerSoccer preseason honors. Stevens, named Second Team, has been listed on a TDS Preseason Best XI for the third-straight year. This is second consecu- tive year that a Blue Devil has been named to the Best XI Freshman Team, as sophomore Delaney Graham received the honor a season ago.

As a team, the Blue Devils landed at No. 17 in the TDS Preseason Top 25. Duke opened last season at No. 7 in the poll.

RECAPPING THE PRESEASON FOR THE BLUE DEVILS...

The Blue Devils opened the preseason with a 3-0 victory in the first of two preseason exhibitions. Duke used a pair of goals from sophomore MaryKate McGuire and one score from freshman Sophie Jones to secure the win. Duke traveled to Athens for its second exhibition of the campaign, facing off with the Georgia Bulldogs. Despite a number of opportunities for both teams, the exhibition matchup ended in a scoreless draw.
